

Dying Matters Conference 2018

The Midlands Regional Community Engagement Network in Partnership with BrumYODO Presents...
How to Do Dying Matters Week

20th November
St Giles Supportive Care Centre, Sutton
Coldfield, Lindridge Road, B75 6JB

Listen, watch and feel a series of talks, workshops and theatre demonstrating how YOU can create spaces to think and talk about Death and Dying.

...with performance by Joanne Tremarco.

£40 per delegate

Email education@birminghamhospice.org.uk to book

Programme for the Day

09:30: Welcome & coffee

10:00: Intro - Dying Matters - "What's it all about?" with Ian Leech - St Giles Hospice, followed by Death Literacy with Sharon Hudson - Birmingham St Mary's Hospice

11:00: Workshops (rotating tables and tea & coffee):

- Death Café with Helen Juffs - End of Life Doula
- Precious Textiles - thinking, creating, talking with Jane Thakoordin and Margaret Murray - Birmingham Artivistas
- Funeral Workshops with Fran Glover and Carrie Weeks - A Natural Undertaking

12:30: Lunch

13:30: "The Birth of Death" with Joanne Tremarco

15:00: Tea & coffee break

15:30: "So, just how do you do it?"

- Getting started ... top tips for your own Dying Matters Week with Gemma Allen (Mary Stevens Hospice) and Alice Spearing (St Richards Hospice)
- A Death Festival - BrumYODO with Sharon Hudson - St Marys Hospice
- Hospice Curiosity Day with Sharon Hudson and Helen Cotter - Birmingham St Mary's Hospice

16:30: Final comments

16:40: Close

John Taylor
Hospice

Brum
YODO